

Steve Anderson

Mr. Anderson graduated from Northwestern University Physical Therapy School in September 1980. He started work in Portland, Oregon in October 1980 for Dan Jones, PT with Therapeutic Associates, a therapist owned private practice. He then opened a private practice clinic with Therapeutic Associates in West Seattle Washington in March of 1983. In January of 1998, he was elected to be Chairman/CEO of Therapeutic Associates. Therapeutic Associates offers outpatient services at over 45 locations in the Western United States including California, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. From 2002-2008 he was the President of Private Practice Section/APTA. Steve is currently enrolled in a transitional DPT (Doctor of Physical Therapy) program through Evidence in Motion. He lives in Bellevue, Washington with his wife, Sharon.